Marsh ranked number one insurance broker and risk advisor for 38th consecutive year

London, 6 August 2009

Marsh & McLennan Companies, Inc. (MMC) has been ranked as the world's largest insurance broker and risk advisor for the 38th consecutive year by Business Insurance, which recently published its annual 2009 brokerage report.

MMC's 2008 brokerage and related services revenue of $11.516 billion was more than $4 billion ahead of its nearest competitor.

"We are proud that the numbers validate our industry leadership, but the main reason clients continue to choose Marsh more than any other broker and risk advisor is our people," said Dan Glaser, chairman and CEO of Marsh. "Their exceptional work reflects our enduring commitment to making a quality difference for our clients every day, around the world."

Business Insurance, published by Crain Communications for all sectors of the risk and insurance services industry, has a circulation of more than 44,000 subscribers in finance, risk management, insurance, employee benefits, and related disciplines.
